

Opportunity...November 8, 2019

Active Participants of the Parenting kind:

A brief message this week with much being done the old-fashioned way - in person - at conferences. And too many messages jamming your inbox this week!! My apologies.

Reminder of No School on Monday in observance of Veteran's Day. Thanks to all who have and will serve our country!! Remind our children some time on Monday of that significant service.

Geography Bee information is attached. If you believe your son or daughter would be interested, please take a look.

Giant gratitude to the high school marching band and Mr. Stary and Mrs. Cogswell. The band performed incredibly for our students on Wednesday. An inspiration of Bobcat Pride!! Thanks also to our PTA for the Book Fair, for providing sandwiches and pizza for our teachers and everything they do for Camelot!!

 I was reminded this week, in the midst of snow pants and bouncing basketballs and walking tacos and nervous parent walks down alien hallways, reminded that school is not a prescription for success...it is an opportunity. It is afforded to the zenith in Brookings, and what good fortune to have a community that takes every advantage of that opportunity. 99.1 percent attendance at conferences at Camelot according to our surveys!! Thanks for being a participant modeling seeing opportunity and taking it!! Best parents anywhere!! Makes the best kids anywhere!!*
